Reported the same back with the recommendation that the bill pass and be re-referred to the Committee on Jobs and Economic Development Finance.

The report was adopted.

Tuma from the Committee on Crime Prevention to which was referred:

H. F. No. 94, A bill for an act relating to natural resources; establishing penalties for gross overlimit violations of fish and game laws; setting certain restitution values; providing criminal penalties; amending Minnesota Statutes 2000, sections 97A.211, by adding a subdivision; 97A.221, subdivision 1; 97A.225, subdivision 1; 97A.255, by adding a subdivision; and 97A.421, by adding a subdivision; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 97A.

Reported the same back with the following amendments:

Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert:

"Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2000, section 97A.211, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 4. [CUSTODIAL ARREST; FIRST DEGREE GROSS OVERLIMIT VIOLATION.] In addition to any other authority granted by law, an enforcement officer may arrest and take into custody a person that the officer has reason to believe committed a first degree or second degree gross overlimit violation under section 97A.338. The person may be detained until the person's first court appearance.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2000, section 97A.225, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. [SEIZURE.] (a) An enforcement officer must seize all motor vehicles used to:

- (1) shine wild animals in violation of section 97B.081, subdivision 1;
- (2) transport big game animals illegally taken or fur-bearing animals illegally purchased; or
- (3) transport minnows in violation of section 97C.501, 97C.515, or 97C.525.

(b) An enforcement officer must seize all boats and motors used in netting fish on Lake of the Woods, Rainy Lake, Lake Superior, Namakan Lake, and Sand Point Lake in violation of licensing or operating requirements of section 97A.475, subdivision ~~31, 32, 33, or 37~~ 30, 97C.825, 97C.831, or 97C.835, or a rule of the commissioner relating to these provisions.

(c) An enforcement officer may seize all motor vehicles, including boats and motors with their trailers, that are used to take, possess, or transport a first or second degree gross overlimit of wild animals under section 97A.338.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 2000, section 97A.255, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 5. [GROSS OVERLIMIT; JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY.] When two or more people aid, advise, counsel, conspire with, or act in concert with each other to unlawfully take, transport, or possess one or more wild animals, each person is jointly and severally liable for the wild animals for purposes of:

- (1) gross overlimit violations under section 97A.338;
- (2) license seizure and revocation under section 97A.420;
- (3) equipment and property seizure under section 97A.221;
- (4) motor vehicle and boat seizure under section 97A.225; and
- (5) restitution under section 97A.341.

Sec. 4. [97A.338] [PENALTIES RELATING TO GROSS OVERLIMITS OF WILD ANIMALS.]

Subdivision 1. [FIRST DEGREE OVERLIMIT VIOLATION.] A person who takes, possesses, or transports wild animals over the legal limit, in closed season, or without a valid license, when the restitution value of the wild animals is $5,000 or more, is guilty of a first degree overlimit violation.

Subd. 2. [SECOND DEGREE OVERLIMIT VIOLATION.] A person who takes, possesses, or transports wild animals over the legal limit, in closed season, or without a valid license, when the restitution value of the wild animals is at least $1,500 but less than $5,000, is guilty of a second degree overlimit violation.

Subd. 3. [THIRD DEGREE OVERLIMIT VIOLATION.] A person who takes, possesses, or transports wild animals over the legal limit, in closed season, or without a valid license, when the restitution value of the wild animals is more than $500 but less than $1,500, is guilty of a third degree overlimit violation.

Subd. 4. [GROSS MISDEMEANOR.] A violation under this section is a gross misdemeanor.

Subd. 5. [VALUES FOR WILD ANIMALS.] The restitution value for a wild animal under this section and section 97A.420 is the value established under section 97A.345, if specified, or the value determined by the court under section 97A.341, subdivision 4, if the value is not specified according to section 97A.345.

Sec. 5. [97A.420] [SEIZURE OF LICENSES FOR GROSS OVERLIMIT VIOLATIONS.]

Subdivision 1. [SEIZURE.] (a) An enforcement officer shall immediately seize the license of a person who unlawfully takes, transports, or possesses wild animals when the restitution value of the wild animals exceeds $500. Except as may be determined under subdivision 2, 4, or 5, the person may not obtain any license of the same type, including a duplicate license, during the period of time the license is seized.

(b) In addition to the license seizure under paragraph (a), if the restitution value of the wild animals unlawfully taken, possessed, or transported is $1,500 or more, all other game and fish licenses held by the person shall be immediately seized. Except as may be determined under subdivision 2, 4, or 5, the person may not obtain any game or fish license or permit, including a duplicate license, during the period of time the licenses are seized.

(c) A person may not take wild animals covered by a license during the time period the license is seized under this subdivision.

Subd. 2. [ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW.] (a) At any time after the seizure of a license under subdivision 1 and before revocation under section 97A.421, a person may request in writing a review of the seizure under this section. Upon receiving the request for review, the commissioner shall review the seizure, the evidence upon which it was based, and other material information brought to the attention of the commissioner, and determine whether sufficient cause exists to sustain the seizure.

(b) Within 15 days after receiving the request for administrative review, the commissioner shall issue a written report of the review and shall order that the seizure be either sustained or rescinded.

(c) The review provided in this subdivision is not subject to the contested case provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act under chapter 14. The availability of administrative review does not have an effect upon the availability of judicial review under this section.

Subd. 3. [JUDICIAL REVIEW.] (a) Within 30 days following the seizure of a license under subdivision 1, a person may petition the court for review. The petition must be filed with the district court administrator in the county where the incident occurred, together with proof of service of a copy on the commissioner and the county attorney. A responsive pleading is not required of the commissioner of natural resources, and court fees may not be charged for the appearance of the representative of the commissioner in the matter.

(b) The petition must be captioned in the name of the person making the petition as petitioner and the commissioner as respondent. The petition must state specifically the grounds upon which the petitioner seeks rescission of the license seizure.

(c) The filing of the petition does not stay the license seizure. The judicial review shall be conducted according to the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Subd. 4. [HEARING.] (a) A hearing under subdivision 3 must be before a district court judge in the county where the incident occurred giving rise to the license seizure. The hearing must be to the court and may be conducted at the same time as hearings upon pretrial motions in a related criminal prosecution. The hearing must be recorded. The commissioner must be represented by the county attorney.

(b) The hearing must be held at the earliest practicable date and in any event no later than 60 days following the filing of the petition for review.

(c) The scope of the hearing must be limited to the issue of whether the officer had probable cause to believe that the person violated section 97A.338.

(d) The court shall order that the license seizure be either sustained or rescinded. The court shall forward a copy of the order to the commissioner.

Subd. 5. [TEMPORARY RELEASE OF COMMERCIAL LICENSES.] At any time during the period that a game or fish license is seized under subdivision 1, a person possessing a commercial license issued under the game and fish laws may make a written request to the commissioner to temporarily release the commercial license. If the commissioner determines that the public welfare will not be injured, the commissioner may temporarily reinstate the commercial license upon payment of $1,000 for each commercial license to be released. The temporary reinstatement fee shall be deposited in the game and fish fund and is not refundable.

Subd. 6. [RELEASE OR REVOCATION OF LICENSES UPON DISMISSAL OR CONVICTION.] (a) Upon acquittal, dismissal, or determination not to charge a person for a gross overlimit violation under section 97A.338, the license seizure under subdivision 1 is immediately rescinded and any license seized in connection with the incident must be returned to the licensee.

(b) Upon conviction of a gross overlimit violation under section 97A.338, revocation of licenses and license privileges must be imposed as provided under section 97A.421, subdivision 2a.

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2000, section 97A.421, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 2a. [ISSUANCE OF LICENSE AFTER GROSS OVERLIMIT CONVICTION.] (a) A person may not obtain a license to take a wild animal and is prohibited from taking wild animals for a period of ten years after being convicted of a first degree overlimit violation under section 97A.338, subdivision 1.

(b) A person may not obtain a license to take a wild animal and is prohibited from taking wild animals for a period of five years after being convicted of a second degree overlimit violation under section 97A.338, subdivision 2.

(c) A person may not obtain the type of license involved in a third degree overlimit violation under section 97A.338, subdivision 3, and may not take wild animals covered by the license for a period of three years after the date of conviction of the third degree overlimit violation.

(d) Any license revocation imposed under this subdivision within ten years of one or more previous license revocations under this subdivision shall be advanced one degree for each previous license revocation. The time period of the revocations shall be consecutive and no wild animals of any kind may be taken during the entire period.

(e) The court may not stay or reduce the imposition of license revocation provisions under this subdivision.

Sec. 7. [RULES FOR RESTITUTION VALUES FOR FISH AND WILDLIFE.]

The restitution value for a canvasback is $100. The restitution value for trumpeter swans is $1,200. The base restitution value for a yellow perch is $10. The commissioner of natural resources shall amend the permanent rules relating to restitution values for fish and wildlife, Minnesota Rules, chapter 6133, according to this section and pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 14.388, clause (3). Except as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 14.388, section 14.386 does not apply.

Sec. 8. [EFFECTIVE DATE.]

Sections 1 to 7 are effective August 1, 2001, and the criminal provisions apply to crimes committed on or after that date."
