Page 6, after line 32, insert:

"Sec. 8. SMALL BUSINESS TAX CREDIT; TAX YEAR 2022.

(a) A taxpayer that is a qualifying small business is retroactively allowed a credit against the tax due under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 290, for a tax year beginning after December 31, 2021, and before January 1, 2023. The credit may not exceed a taxpayer's liability for tax. The amount allocated to the credit is $14,800,000. For purposes of this section, "qualifying small business" has the meaning determined by the commissioner of revenue, which the commissioner must make by July 1, 2024, by using, referencing, or modifying any existing definition or criteria under state or federal law for categorizing a business as a small business. Applications for the credit must be made available beginning July 1, 2024, on a first-come, first-served basis, until the full amount of the allocation is used, or by another method as determined by the commissioner. The commissioner must determine the maximum credit amount per taxpayer and any other provision relating to the credit the commissioner deems necessary to fairly administer or give effect to this section, including adjusting all necessary forms and instructions for the taxable year affected by the credit. All provisions of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 290, not inconsistent with this section, apply to the credit allowed under this section.

EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective the day following final enactment, for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2021, and before January 1, 2023."
